COMMON SCHOOLS.

Biennial Report of Their Condition in Lincoln County.

(To the Editor of the Interior Journal.)
Believing that the public should be posted in general, if not in detail, in regard to the workings of the public school system of our county, I hereby append the following, taken from and being a part of my annual reports to the State for 1891-92:

At the beginning of September, 1890, there were in the county 60 white and 17 colored schools. Number of children reported in census report ending June 30, '91, was 4,502 white and 1,467 colored; total 5,969; males, white, 2,271; females, white, 2,231; males, colored, 763; females, colored, 704, for which the State paid to the teachers of this county $13,548.88. There were 64 white teachers and 18 colored employed, who were paid for white teachers an average of $31.11 per month, for colored, an average of about $39.38.

The number of whites enrolled in school were 2,650; colored 884; average attendance, whites, 1,471; colored, 477. Cost of each white child per month, counting highest number at school, was $4.29, and for colored, $4.60. The per capita was $2.25; interest on county bonds 2 cents.

The number of school-houses for the whites in 1891 was 58, constructed as follows: Frame, including box houses, 43; log, 14; brick 1; total value about $13,000. Value of school furniture, $2,090. Number of colored school-houses in '91 were 15, mostly box, valued at $1,070; value of school furniture, $190.

There are more female teachers in both white and colored schools than males. The number of children, white and colored, who stayed at home on account of indifference or neglect on the part of parents were 731; on account of poverty 73; infirm mental condition 29; infirm bodily condition 18.

During the school year ending June 30, 1892, there were two new districts added and five new school-houses built at a cost of $750. The total value of school-houses now is $15,424 for white, $1,340 for colored.

There has been added within the past year about $1,000 worth of modern school furniture, consisting principally of comfortable desks, blackboards, etc. Several new houses are now being built, which will be ready for occupancy within the next 30 days. About 30 houses have been condemned for repairs since Sept. 1, 1890, most of which have been materially improved, yet very many are now in a very poor condition for a county like ours.

The census report for the year ending June 30, '92, did not differ materially from that already given for the year preceding. The per capita was the same, $2.25, with 3 cents added as interest on county bonds. The average attendance was about the same, but a marked improvement in the manner of teaching. The amount of money paid to teachers for the year ending June 30, '92, was for whites, $10,237.26, and for colored, $3,349.96. Salaries about the same as in 1891. The number of teachers examined for certificates for the past two years have been 99 white, and 33 colored.

There has been paid to the teachers of all the schools in the county for the past two years ending June 30, 1892, $27,338.04. There has been collected by the sheriff and other collectors and paid over to the county superintendent school tax to the amount of $2,515, all of which has been paid out, except about $400, which is now on hands, subject to the orders of the trustees of those districts to which it belongs.

It will be seen from the above that within the last two years there has been paid out for school purposes in the common school department alone nearly $30,000, the receipts for which are now on file in this office. Notwithstanding the amount seems liberal enough, yet there are many schools in the county that are poorly supplied with the actual necessities which should be had to insure the children the full benefit of the funds apportioned to them.

There is one thing of which I am doubly proud, and that is, the people are becoming very much interested in who shall be selected trustees in their respective districts. Rings are fast disappearing and teachers are being employed more on account of fitness than on account of kinship or favoritism. It seems to be a right move in the right direction.

There is one thing yet sadly to be deplored, and that is that so many parents who could, by their influence and their money, give a higher tone to the public school than it now has. It is in their power to a great extent to make them the schools of the State, thereby educating the masses, who are and always should be the sovereign power of any State or republic.

The above has been given as we said at the outset as only a partial report of the working of the common school system of Lincoln county. Trusting it may be the means of arousing a greater interest in those who are directly interested in the common schools of our county, I am most respectfully,

W. F. McCLARY.

JUDGE M. C. SAUFLEY

Wins the Nomination for Circuit Court Judge Hands Down.

Carrying Every County in the District.

John Sam Owsley, Jr., Has a Walk over For Commonwealth's Attorney.

In the primary Saturday it was Eclipse first, the rest nowhere. Judge Saufley carried every county in the district, his own by 857, Mercer by 89, Boyle by 41 and Garrard by 33. We are not accustomed to exult over victories between democrats and take but little stock in the "county pride" business, unless our county's entry is in every way deserving, but in this instance we must be excused for feeling a decided pleasure over the result. Judge Saufley is so well qualified and eminently fitted for the position that he aspired to that it is a source of great gratification to his neighbors and friends to know that he has been chosen the party's nominee by so large a complimentary vote, especially over such worthy competitors as Messrs. Breckinridge and Noel, and Lincoln county promises to roll up a practically unanimous vote for him in November.

THE NOMINEE.

Judge Micah C. Saufley was born May 13, 1843, at Monticello, Ky., and enjoyed the usual school facilities of his section till the breaking out of the war, when, although he was but 18, he enlisted in Col. Grigsby's regiment, the 6th Kentucky cavalry, and fought for the "lost cause" till the close of hostilities, being in the meantime promoted to a lieutenant. On his return from the war he found that his father, Mr. H. R. Saufley, had been stripped of most of his substance and was unable to help him in any way. A friend, recognizing his worth, was willing to loan him the money to go to the Louisville Law School, and there he laid the foundation for the splendid legal attainments he now enjoys.

Just before moving to Stanford in June, 1868, Judge Saufley was married to Miss Sallie Rowan, of McMinnville, Tenn., and it is easy to believe from their appearance now, the statement of Mr. Henry Watterson, who was present at their marriage, that "They were the handsomest young couple I ever saw." A large and interesting family has blessed the union, which seems to have been made in Heaven. In 1872 Judge Saufley was elected county judge of Lincoln and filled the office most creditably for one term. He ran for the nomination for superior judge a few years ago and the methods of his defeat are still fresh in the minds of our readers. In March, 1888, President Cleveland appointed him associate justice of the Supreme Court of Wyoming, which he accepted and held till the Territory was made a State two years later. He made much reputation as a jurist there and some of his decisions are quoted as high authority. He was importuned by the democrats to run for judge, there, but the climate not agreeing with him, and longing to return to his native State, he brought his family back to Stanford, where he has since lived. He stands at the top both as a gentleman and a lawyer and he will make a judge who will reflect credit on the office and on the people who have nominated him by so large a vote.

John Sam Owsley, Jr., who was nominated for Commonwealth's attorney without opposition, is the eldest son of Hon. Jno. S. Owsley, and was born Jan. 20, 1867. He graduated both in the literary and law schools of Cumberland University and got license to practice his profession in Tennessee. After remaining there awhile he went to Texas, where he practiced till April, 1889, when he came home and formed a partnership with W. H. Miller, with whom he was associated in the practice until recently. He was city attorney for one term and is regarded by the bar as a most promising young lawyer. He is a good speaker with the courage to express his views, and law-breakers need expect no leniency at his hands.

Messrs. Proctor & Gamble, the millionaire proprietors of Ivory soap, offered $25,000 in prizes for the best written for Ivory soap. Mrs. Emma Wood and Mr. Henry C. Wood, of this place, were both contestants, and Mrs. Wood got third prize and a check for $250 and Mr. Wood got the seventh and tenth prizes, with checks for $150 and $75 respectively. There were 27,368 contestants.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—There was a dance at the Commercial Hotel Friday night.

—Mr. J. A. Craft and wife, of Louisville, are visiting relatives in London this week.

—The Laurel County Fair Association will open here the 24th and there will be not less than 20,000 people here.

—Several chicken coops with good, fine chickens being fattened for the fair, have suffered in Do-well the past week.

—The L. & N. railroad has put crushed gravel in front of the depot this week, which adds to its usual commonplace appearance.

—If Dick Ward leaves London to take charge of the Lancaster Roller Mills, there will be many friends here who will dislike to see him go.

—Mrs. Steve Jackson, of town, and Mrs. Simp Sandifer, just out of town, have been so seriously sick the past week that their lives have been despaired of.

—Col. Alvah Pollins, who has been visiting us for several weeks, left Saturday for his home at Paint Lick. Editor Chesnut, of Corbin, was here Saturday.

—Robert Hubbard and family, of Louisville, step-son of T. J. Perdee, arrived here Sunday, bringing the body of their little child, that had died of whooping cough, here for burial.

—Judge J. H. Hazelrigg, who is the democratic nominee for judge of the court of appeals against the republican judge, W. H. Holt, will probably speak in London one day during the fair.

—Some of the young ladies here are just beginning to wear suspenders. Chances for matrimony will be slim as long as they follow this style; the boys will be afraid that they will want to wear the breeches, too.

—Dave Spitsen, living about six miles from London, was probably fatally shot Thursday night by his son and son-in-law. Each shot took effect in the breast, one going straight through the body. His daughter has been married only a few weeks and it is reported that he has often said that she should not live with the man she married and that he would kill her before she should. He got on a drunk Thursday and attempted to cut her throat after driving her husband from home, who returned in time with Spitsen's son to save her life and with the above result.

—Last Saturday the different democratic chairmen of this congressional district, were to meet in London for the purpose of selecting a time and place for holding county conventions and the district convention to nominate a democratic candidate for Congress. The counties of Bell, Knox, Whitley and Laurel were the only ones represented by county chairmen. District Chairman R. M. Jackson had proxies from all the remainder of the 17 counties except three. Col. John B. Fish represented Bell; Hon. W. J. Caudill was here from Knox and Editor G. A. Denham from Whitley. Candidate Sam C. Hardin, of Clinton county, and candidate for appellate judge, J. H. Hazelrigg, of Mt. Sterling, were also present, hoping to meet as many of the democrats of this side of the district as possible. After a four-hours' session it was decided that the district convention be held in London on Monday, Sept. 19th, at 11 a. m., and that all county conventions be held on Saturday, Sept. 11th, at 1 p. m., and instructions to this effect were sent to the different chairmen. Middlesboro, Corbin, Somerset and London were all put in nomination as suitable places for holding the convention, which finally narrowed down to Corbin and London. We have the hotel accommodations, a nice town and the finest well water in the State for the delegates to use as a rarity.

MIDDLEBURG, CASEY COUNTY.

—Janie-Wash Institute opened with 118 pupils.

—The M. E. District Conference is in session at this writing and several delegates from a distance are present. Much interest is manifested and may close up with a protracted meeting.

—Quite a sensation was raised in town Thursday morning. It resulted in being a large girl at D. G. Elliott's. Dave has grown 18 inches.

—The following attended the association at Eubanks last week: J. A. Bryant, E. C. Jones, F. L. Jones, J. N. Huff, Alva Lucas, W. E. Lucas. Prof. James Allen has completed his new boarding-house and can now accommodate the public as well as students of the Institute. Mr. and Mrs. Collinsworth have returned from Danville, and as Mr. C. is an invalid, they have taken rooms with Mrs. Coffey.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

—The 74,000 people who were brave enough to vote against the new constitution, the wisdom of which they could not see, are not quite so odious as they were about this time last year.—Owensboro Messenger.

—When asked whether he regarded the election law, enacted by the General Assembly, as constitutional or not, Gov. Brown declined to say anything except that he intends to submit his views to the people at an early date.

HUSTONVILLE.

—The election passed off very quietly here with the exception of a few drunk men on the streets.

—Storm parties are the order of the day. Last Monday night the young people assembled at the home of L. B. Adams and spent a pleasant time. On Tuesday night Jones Baughman entertained his young friends.

—Our town seems to be on the verge of a boom. James Frye bought of J. W. Allen the lot adjoining the store-house of J. G. Weatherford and will in the near future erect a handsome brick business house. Mr. Morse bought of the same party the lot formerly owned by John S. Goode and has a new dwelling in course of construction. It won't be long before we will have water works and electric lights.

—News reached here of the shooting of George J. Wright at his home in Calera, Ala., by a negro. There had been a robbery committed and Mr. Wright, with other citizens of the town, were looking for the robber, when they came upon him in the woods. He fired at them, one ball striking Mr. Wright, making a slight wound. The negro escaped, but was caught near Birmingham and there is some talk of a lynching. Besides wounding Mr. Wright he shot a Mr. Stine severely and grave hopes are entertained for his recovery.

—Miss Minnie Dinwiddie attended the Campbellsville fair. Dock Drye and June Reid went over to Nicholasville Friday. Miss May Willons after a pleasant stay of a month with Miss Mary Adams, returned to her home at Bolivar, Tenn., last week. Miss Lucy Givens returned from Greensburg Saturday. Judge L. C. Alcorn and wife accompanied her home and will remain for a few days. J. B. Cook, "Squire" Peyton and Geo. Bradley arrived from Cumberland Falls last week. Mose Cook is at Cumberland Falls. Miss Maggie Hays, of Springfield, and Misses Emma and Hattie Funk, of Danville, are visiting Misses Beulah and Grace Vanarsdale. Kyle Bohon is at home on a furlough.

Chesapeake & Ohio—Annual Report.

The annual report for the year ending June 30, 1892, of M. E. Ingalls, President of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway, presents some remarkable statistics. The company was re-organized in the fall of 1889, the year previous to which it earned $4,500,000; last year it earned over $9,000,000. Not only was there an increase in passenger earnings, but also in the rate per mile, while freight traffic increased with very nearly the same rate per mile. To meet the demand of the heavy export traffic, new freight and passenger piers and increased yards have been completed at Newport News. Forty miles of double track over the mountains, now nearing completion, will be increased to seventy miles during the next year. New branch lines to valuable coal fields completed within the past year and others very nearly completed, will give increased traffic of that class. The main line is laid with 75-pound steel, stone ballasted and together with the rolling stock augmented greatly during the past year, is in the finest condition. With all these increased facilities the cost of hauling traffic will be greatly reduced. For the first time in its history the Chesapeake and Ohio seems to have reached a dividend producing period. By the conversion of preferred stocks into 4½ per cent. gold bearing bonds a scheme which was approved by the stockholders with great unanimity. There is a fixed income from these holdings, while by the scheme common stock is placed nearer a dividend.

—The Lehigh Valley and other switchmen seem to have been beaten in their strike. New men are doing their work under the protection of the military, which had in one case to fire on the strikers for failure to stop stoning a train when ordered to do so.

—Democratic primary conventions in the Fourteenth judicial district leave the contest between Judge Cantrill and Judge Julian in doubt. A contesting delegation from Bourbon county holds the key to the situation.

THE sensation of the hour is Gov. Brown's proclamation reconvening the Legislature on the 25th, it having taken a recess till Nov. 15th without taking action on his vetoes of the revenue and other bills, which make their proper enactment imperative both for the credit of the State and her participation in the National election this fall. In addition to the revenue, corporation and geological bills, the governor names the consideration of the election, the World's Fair, the attorney, the circuit court re-districting, the classification of cities and the fiscal courts bills. His reason for including the bills heretofore approved by him is that he has since learned, with astonishment, from the journals of each House, that in the passage of some bills containing an emergency clause or an appropriation, the constitutional injunction had not been complied with, in giving to such measures, on their final passage, the votes of a majority of all elected to each House of the General Assembly. The governor further states that the body has plenty of time now to rectify its mistakes, change the date for the assessment of property for this year, and pass a revenue and taxation bill under which every individual and corporation shall be required to pay proper taxation for the year 1892. If the governor's view of the situation is correct, and the constitution seems to bear him out in it, all the work of the Legislature, made at a cost of $250,000 to the taxpayers, is worthless and will have to be done over again. It will be remembered that the House voted to change the date for its reconvening to Sept. 5, but that the Senate failed to adopt the resolution, owing to the filibustering of those arch conspirators, Senators Mulligan and Goebel, whose course then and before has rendered them particularly notorious and obnoxious. It is very important that there should be no trouble about the revenue and taxation bills and scarcely less is it true of the election bill. If the latter was passed in violation of the plain provisions of the constitution, the ballot under it might be contested and Kentucky's electoral vote be thrown out of the general count. The questions raised by Gov. Brown are very serious ones and it is hoped that the legislators will return to Frankfort with no feeling of pique or desire for vindication, but will consider the points with an eye single to the interests at stake. We fear, however, that this will not be the case, as already a governor and anti-governor feeling is manifesting itself, with Speaker Moore, Goebel, Mulligan and others leading the latter; and they are said to be preparing an address that will paralyze, in their opinion, at least, the man who has been brave enough to stand by the fundamental law and see that no acts are passed in conflict with it. This paper did its level best to convince the people that trouble and that continually lay in the adoption of the crazy quilt, presented by the constitution patchers, but since we failed and the thing has become by popular vote the constitution of Kentucky, we are for its provisions being followed to the letter. There is no necessity in inviting long and tedious law suits in the very beginning.

WE did not see the Danville Democrat till after our last issue was printed, or we might have given the "cautious and bumptious" editor another slight dig in the short ribs. The matter in question is a dead issue now, about as dead as the language Bro. Fox quotes so incorrectly. This the way he has it: "Mons-parturiunt et ridiculus mus nascetur," using a singular noun with a plural verb, and failing to follow the arrangement that Horace gave to the sentence—Parturiunt montes, nascetur ridiculus mus. If you won't think it rude, old friend, we would suggest that you study up on Latin, in which you appear to be decidedly rusty, or stick to English as she is writ.

THE McKinley bill, which was to protect American industries and increase wages, has not proved a panacea. Since the passage of the iniquitous measure there have been over 1,000 strikes in this country, and still they come.

THE people's party in Tennessee endorsed Gov. Buchanan for governor, but his action in the King sentence and his inaction in the miner troubles, have killed him so dead that he stinketh.

THE Coal Creek miners seem to be entirely routed by the militia, who are now in entire possession of the field, with several hundred of them as prisoners. In the battle, which was opened by the miners, some 15 or 20 of them were killed and four or five of the citizen soldiery met death. Before the main body of the troops arrived the miners by treachery and under a flag of truce captured Col. Anderson and would have lynched him had not calmer counsel prevailed. The colonel, who was a member of the noted Orphan Brigade, told them he would die before he would surrender his men and that all the favor he had to ask them was that if they were determined to put him to death, to shoot him like a soldier and not hang him like a felon. When Gen. Carnes arrived with his regiments and after an engagement captured a large number of miners, he demanded the surrender of Col. Anderson, but the demand was not promptly complied with until the general threatened to shoot every prisoner he had, when he was brought back in short order. It is pretty hard on the miners to have to compete with convict labor, but there can be no sympathy for them in their lawlessness, and the whole State of Tennessee seems determined to restore order at any cost. Gov. Buchanan is denounced everywhere for his vacillating course in the matter and his apparent effort to win votes for himself at the expense of law and order. It is charged that his labor commissioner is in league with the miners and he has been arrested.

IN the abundance of caution, the editors of the Jessamine Journal, submitted to Chairman John D. Carroll, the question of the eligibility of J. Mort Rothwell, Esq., for elector as long as he held the office of city attorney of Lancaster and in his letter he says: "After a good deal of correspondence and delay, Mr. Rothwell has agreed to resign his office of city attorney. I may further say that I think an elector is a State officer, and hence, under section 165 of the Constitution, any office or employment by a city is incompatible with the office of elector." We agree with the Journal that in cases of doubt it is best to follow the railroad rule, "Take the side of safety and run no risks." Mr. Rothwell need not give up his present lucrative office for a couple of months yet.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—The sad news reached here Sunday of the death of Miss Norah Belle Dickinson at her home in Buckeye. She was a niece of Mrs. Susan Harris, of this place, and frequently visited her cousin, Miss Montie Harris. Pretty, bright, less than 20 and the picture of health, she seemed destined to live long upon the earth, but typhoid fever attacked her and yesterday her body was placed beneath the soil. Truly, "In the midst of life we are in death." Mrs. B. K. Wear, Mrs. Annie James, Geo. B. Wear, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ramsey, Mrs. Susan Harris, Miss Montie Harris and R. M. Newland went out yesterday to be present at the burial.

—The Advocate says that Green Clay Smith, Jr., son of the general, died at Washington of typhoid fever.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Eld. Martin's meeting at Paris has scored 100 additions.

—Rev. Masters will preach at Maywood on Monday night, Aug. 29.

—Rev. B. F. Cosby will preach at Neal's Creek school-house next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

—Rev. J. H. Harding, agent for general home missions, preached a fine sermon at the Christian church Sunday.

—The American Bible Society will make an exhibit at the Columbian Exhibition, in which will appear copies of Bibles in more than 200 different languages.

—Betsy, to the wife of Rev. W. A. Borem, of Harrodsburg, a few days ago, a girl. This is the third daughter born to him in the month of August in three consecutive years.

—The Methodist church once had a serious controversy as to whether it was proper for men to wear suspenders—"galluses," they called them then. And now the women wear them. Times have changed since Betsy departed this life.

DANVILLE.

—Mr. Devoile, of Louisville, is visiting his brother-in-law, Chief of Police Sullivan.

—Manuel Allen, breach of the peace, $5 and costs, was a police court case Monday morning.

—Mr. L. H. Rolston, of Golden, Col., formerly principal of the preparatory department of Centre College, is visiting the family of Mr. John J. Craig.

—Rev. P. A. Sowell, of the Methodist church, preached his last sermon here Sunday. He will go back to Tennessee, where he lived before coming to Danville.

—Judge T. Z. Morrow stopped here Saturday on his way from Lancaster to Somerset to see his latest grand son, the new arrival at the home of C. D. Portwood.

—In the primary election Saturday for the democratic nomination for circuit court judge, M. C. Sautley received 549 votes, R. J. Breckinridge 508 and H. T. Noel 47 votes.

—Dick Bentley, colored, who has already been in the penitentiary twice for stealing, is trying to get there again, this time by the watermelon route. He stole a melon Monday morning from the wagon of an old man named F. M. Watkins.

—Mr. G. M. Bibb, a native of Danville, and for 13 years agent for the Cincinnati Southern road at this point, died of typhoid fever last Thursday at Garrett, Ind., where he had been in the railroad business for about three years. He left a widow and several children, some of them small. He was buried at Garrett.

—The local colored post of the G. A. R. will give a big parade and supper on Sept. 3.

—The primary election Saturday passed off quietly. As far as can be ascertained at the present writing Judge Sautley's majority in the county is 33.

—The business of the present term of the circuit court is being transacted with unusual rapidity. The court adjourned Friday until to-morrow, Tuesday. Only a few cases remain to be tried.

—Prof. C. Merritt, the band teacher, rendered valuable assistance to the choir at the Presbyterian church, Sunday with his slide trombone. Prof. Merritt is an accomplished musician, a splendid teacher and an elegant gentleman.

—Next Sunday Rev. Amos Stout will preach his farewell sermon as pastor of the Baptist church here. He is an excellent man every way and the congregation regrets exceedingly to give him up. It is not settled yet as to who will succeed him.

—Some miscreants played havoc with Mr. Han Brown's watermelon patch one day last week. What melons that were not stolen were cut from the vines and otherwise destroyed. Several little coons were arrested for the offense, but the proof was not sufficient to convict them. Mr. Brown is on the war path.

—Dr. W. S. Elkin, of Atlanta, is here visiting relatives. Mr. Sam Hardin, of Albany, Ky., was in town Sunday. Charley Anderson, of Louisville, was in town Sunday. Misses Wingate, of Lexington, are visiting Misses Sue and Hallie Herring. Mrs. Nancy Marksbury is on a visit to her son, H. A. B. Marksbury. Miss Annie Frazee, of Maysville, is the guest of Miss Maggie Jennings. Clyde Herring, of Louisville, was in town Saturday. Miss Jennie Lackey is visiting in Kansas City. TO LOAN.—$4,000 on real estate security. Address Box 10, Lancaster, Ky.

We are requested to announce that Miss Georgie Lewis will open her school at Mt. Xenia on next Monday, 29th.

I HAVE only a few goods left and am determined to close them out at once. See stock and get prices. J. B. Foster.

THE C. & O. will run an excursion from Cincinnati to Old Point at $12.50 for the round-trip, August 25, tickets good till Sept. 15.

ISAAC HAMILTON has sold his stock of goods at Rowland to J. H. Stephens, recently a merchant at Atoka, Boyle county. The terms are private, but it is believed Mr. Stephens paid cost and carriage.

THE vacation is rapidly drawing to a close and teachers and pupils are beginning to count the days till school opens. The public school will throw open its doors Aug. 29, while the College and the Seminary start in together on the 6th inst.

THE attention of the directors of the Danville and Crab Orchard pike is called to the fact that the railing on one side of the bridge over Logan's Creek has fallen off. It needs replacing, for as it is now, it is a splendid place to run off and get hurt or killed.

THERE will be but four magisterial districts in Lincoln county. Messrs. W. O. Hansford and John Bright refused very properly to compromise with Mr. J. M. Carter on a greater number, and with some changes in the lines the districts will be as previously given.

THE next session of the Stanford Public School will begin Monday, August 29th. We would especially urge upon parents who do not patronize the private schools the importance of having their children attend promptly from the first of the session. T. D. Newland, Chairman Board of Trustees; C. H. Holmes, Principal.

NEW HOTEL.—Mr. B. B. Martin has a number of carpenters on his new hotel, in Needmore, just beyond Rowland, and before many weeks pass Needmore will have a good stopping place for the weary traveler. The building will contain 16 rooms and a store-room and Mr. Martin will at once apply for license to open a bar, so that he can accommodate his guests in any way they wish.

JUDGE VARNON, under the law which makes it his duty to do so, was engaged yesterday fixing the voting places in the county and they will be as follows: In Stanford Magisterial district there will be four, three in Stanford and one at Rowland; in the Crab Orchard district there will be two, both in town; in the Hustonville precinct there will be three, two in Hustonville and the other at Turnersville, and in the Waynesburg district three, at New Waynesburg, Kingsville and Highland.

KILLED BY THE CARS.—Joe Turner, aged 25, was run over by Capt. Wm. Geer's work train, near Crab Orchard, Saturday night, and instantly killed. The train had just left the station and had hardly gotten up speed when Engineer Arthur Pierce saw a man start across the track a few feet in front of the engine. He felt a slight jar and fearing something serious had happened stopped the train and Capt. Geer went back to find a mangled body dead. Both arms were mashed, one off and the other nearly so, while the pilot had plowed a great hole in the head. Turner had been drinking all the afternoon and was drunk at the time of the killing. He was a dissipated fellow and had become worse since his wife left him some time ago. His burial was at the expense of the county. No blame can attach to the railroad men.

HON. W. H. MILLER has returned from a six weeks' visit to New York and Pennsylvania, where he was the guest of Mr. J. Ottenheimer. Mr. O. has 12,000 acres of land in Pennsylvania, which he is trying to convert into a huge park for outing parties from New York and Philadelphia, from each of which great centres it is distant about 100 miles. It is situated with lakes and the natural scenery is very fine. Mr. Miller thinks from all he could gather in conversation with leading democrats of New York, the State will give Cleveland its electoral vote by 50,000, certainly, if the mugwumps do not go back on him. In any event, the State will go democratic. Senator Hill has not shown his hand much yet, but the general opinion is that he is too much of a democrat and too thorough a politician not to fall in at the proper time and lead the glorious victory, where he has so often been victorious himself. Mr. Miller also thinks that the labor troubles at Homestead and other points have put the Pennsylvanians to thinking about the iniquities of the McKinley tariff and places that State among the doubtful ones, notwithstanding its republican majority a few years ago of 80,000. Mr. Miller's health greatly improved while he was gone and he tells us that Mr. Ottenheimer has about regained his former vigor.

Your trade solicited. Danks, the jeweler, is located at Carson's store.

THE L. & N. will run excursions to Niagara and Toronto on the 24, 25 and 26 at about $8.50 from here, tickets good returning till Aug. 31.

I AM compelled now to call on all indebted to me for a settlement. Please call at basement of Severance & Son's and pay me. J. B. Foster.

THE miners in the Jellico region in Kentucky, who stopped work out of sympathy with the Coal Creekers, resumed work yesterday.

THERE will be a box supper at Maywood on Saturday night, Sept. 3, for the benefit of Logan's Creek church. Everybody invited to come and bring a box. A. T. Martin and W. H. Innis, com'tee.

MR. T. M. PENNINGTON's house will be up in a few days. The foundation is completed and B. G. Pennington has had the entire house framed and shipped from Middlesboro and it is now at the depot.

THE Pittsburg base ball club is waltzing around with a chip on its shoulder, during any nine from Junction City to Knoxville to tackle it. Address James H. Pugh, Pittsburg, if you are not afraid to cross bats with it.

SUICIDE.—A Mt. Vernon dispatch says that Miss Edna, the 19-year-old daughter of Rev. M. D. Burnett, of that county, committed suicide by poison Saturday. It is said that Robert Cook, to whom she was engaged procured the drug for her. He has fled.

DURING the year or more Mr. P. W. Green has been in the livery business he has had four "smash-ups" only, and strange as it may seem all happened to one vehicle. This is remarkable considering the fact that he has a dozen or more rigs in his stable. Mr. Green has concluded that the buggy is ill-fated and has set it aside for future use.

THE Q. & C. will run a special to Cincinnati Sunday next from Somerset, leaving there at 5:30 A. M. Returning, train leaves Cincinnati at 8:30 P. M., but tickets will be good on next morning's train. From points from Somerset to Moreland, $2 the round-trip, and from Junction City to Nicholasville, $1.75. All the theatres in Cincinnati, the Zoo and Coney Island will be open to furnish amusement for the excursionists.

A FEW days ago a dog, supposed to be mad, bit Miss Nancy Hubbard, a young lady living on Stinking Creek, in Knox county, on the little finger. It made her and the family very uneasy and learning that there was a madstone here, her brother brought her down Saturday. They were directed to Mr. Andrew Wallace, who applied the stone, and as it stuck, the dog must have been mad. As soon as he bit the young lady he was confined to await the result of his supposed rabies.

THE primary election at this precinct passed without incident worth mentioning. There was little drinking and no arrests during the day. Everybody nearly was for Sautley and of a consequence there was no excitement.

Judge Sautley's plurality in the district is 1,020 and his majority about 750. Following is the vote in this county by precincts:

Precincts.	Sautley.	Breckinridge.	Noel.
Stanford No. 1.	182	8	8
" No. 2.	237	11	2
Highland.	38	2	0
Waynesburg.	15	2	0
Hustonville.	178	39	2
Walnut Flat.	36	6	0
Crab Orchard.	90	39	23
Humble.	60	1	24
Kingsville.	49	2	1
Turnersville.	100	9	1
Totals.	967	110	77

Total vote 1154. Sautley's majority 780, Sautley's plurality over Noel 830 and over Breckinridge 857.

John S. Owsley, Jr.'s vote was about that of all the candidates combined, so we did not include it in the table.

Teachers' Institute.

The Lincoln County Teachers' Institute was called to order at 10 A. M. yesterday by Supt. W. F. McClary, who in a short speech urged promptness in attendance and an active interest in all the subjects presented. Rev. J. M. Cook offered prayer and on being introduced, the conductor, Prof. W. C. Grinstead, made an appropriate address, which was well received by the teachers, who seemed to take to him at once. A committee consisting of Prof. Grinstead, chairman, and Messrs. Mary Kay and Kate Blain, and Messrs. T. S. Benson and W. J. Edmiston, were appointed the committee on programme. W. S. Burch was then elected secretary and Miss Georgie Lewis is assistant and the Institute adjourned till 2 P. M.

The following teachers answered at roll call at 2 P. M.:

Misses Georgie Lewis, Helen Thurmond, Della Gooch, Mary Kay, Mayme Wright, Cettie Thurmond, Kate Cook, Ella Wright, Ethyl Wright, Effie Wright, Lydia Lewis, Virgie White, Nora Phillips, Lizzie Withers, Fannie Lewis, Amanda Carson, Nannie Edmiston, Kate Blain, Anna Reid, Julia Staggs, Annie Morgan, Amanda Bishop, Lou Moore, Mary Carter, Mollie Warren, Sallie West, Sarah Phillips, Maggie Martin, Rebecca Estes, Eliza Smith, Ella Douglas, Mrs. Bettie Eubanks, Susan Ping, Bettie Buchanan, Eliza Ballard.

Messrs. C. H. Holmes, Jno. A. Chapell, Field Montgomery, Thos. S. Benson, M. J. Brough, W. H. Michum, W. S. Burch, James Ping, W. J. Edmiston,

C. M. Young, H. S. Young, M. D. Wall, Wm. Dunnervant, G. Singleton, Porter Lewis, J. M. Cook, G. W. Curtis, J. H. King, J. E. Robinson, J. B. Wall, J. M. Acton.

Spelling was the first subject introduced by Miss Cettie Thurmond and further discussed by the Institute.

Sound of the vowels was discussed by Prof. Grinstead.

Query Box was opened and questions assigned to teachers for answers were postponed until Tuesday morning.

In the spelling contest the fewest words were missed by C. H. Holmes, in fact he didn't miss one, and he was presented with a suitable reward by Prof. W. C. Grinstead.

The Institute then adjourned until Tuesday morning at 8:30.

The attendance is large and the session promises to be both pleasant and profitable. All the teachers are good looking, the young ladies unusually so.

Lincoln Circuit Court.

Emily B. Jones, &c., Plaintiffs, } Sale in Equity

vs. }
Joe C. Jones, &c., Defts.

By virtue of a judgment of the Lincoln Circuit Court rendered in the above styled case at the October term, 1891, I will on at 11 o'clock a. m. or thereabout, on the premises, sell at public auction to the highest bidder the following described property, to wit:

A Blue-Grass Farm of 449 Acres,

1 Road and 12 Poles,

Situated on the waters of the Hanging Fork, about 1½ miles west of Stanford on the Shelby City pike and adjoins the lands of G. A. Lackey, Jos. McAlister, Wm. Burton, La. Lason and others and is the Lewis R. Jones farm. For further description and metes and bounds, the pleadings and title papers herein are referred to.

Said farm is well improved with good dwelling house, barns and other outbuildings; has an abundance of water for all purposes and is suitable for growing hemp, corn, tobacco, wheat and small grains, and is one of the best farms in the county, all fertile Blue-Grass land, in a high state of cultivation and is a No. 1 Stock Farm.

Said Farm is susceptible of division into two tracts, one 250 Acres and the other of about 200 Acres, each tract fronting on the turnpike road. Said Farm will first be offered in two parcels as above and then as a whole tract, and the offer realizing the most money will be declared.

Said sale will be made on a credit of 6, 12 and 18 months, in equal installments. Bonds required of the purchasers, bearing 6 per cent. interest from day of sale until paid, with good personal security and have the force and effect of a judgment; a lien also retained on the land till all the purchase money is paid.

Said sale will be made for a division of the proceeds among the heirs of L. R. Jones, decd.

G. M. DAVISON,

Master Com'r Lincoln Circuit Court.

For information call on or address J. D., E. H. or J. C. Jones, Stanford, Ky.

P. S.—At the sale of the above Farm we will sell at public auction all the Stock, Crops and Farming Utensils on the Farm.
